

Commodity Credit Corporation, USDA

§ 1482.12

charges CCC for funds. Such interest shall accrue from the date CCC made such funds available to the date of repayment or the date interest increases as determined in accordance with applicable regulations.

(d) CCC may waive the accrual of interest and/or damages if CCC determines that the cause of the erroneous determination was not due to any action of the producer.

(e) Any producer or person engaged in an act prohibited by this Part and any producer or person receiving payment under this Part, in part because of such act, shall be jointly and individually liable for any refund due under this Part and for related charges.

(f) The remedies provided in this Part shall be in addition to other civil, criminal, or administrative remedies which may apply.

(g) Other limitations may apply.

§ 1482.11 Appeals.

(a) Any producer who is subject to an adverse determination made under this Part shall have a right to appeal the determination by filing a written request with the Deputy Administrator of the Farm Service Agency at the following address: Deputy Administrator, Commodity Operations, Farm Service Agency, United States Department of Agriculture, STOP 0550, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20250-0550.

(b) Any producer who believes that it has been adversely affected by a determination under this Part must seek review with the Deputy Administrator within thirty days of such determination, unless provided with notice by CCC which provides a different time for appealing.

(c) Any producer who believes that it has been adversely affected by a determination by the Agency must seek review with the Deputy Administrator before any other review may be requested by a court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 1482.12 Expiration.

This program will expire June 5, 2003. The program shall not be extended.
